UBIQUITY OF COMPLETE INTERSECTION LIAISON CLASSES

MARK JOHNSON

ABSTRACT. Liaison is a method to study (pure equidimensional) subschemes of projective space, or (unmixed) ideals of a Gorenstein local ring. We use a new liaison invariant to distinguish many complete intersection liaison classes in codimension at least four. This contrasts sharply with the case for Gorenstein liaison.